NILES MINISTER IS HONORED WITH RELIGIOUS DEGREE

Reverend Brinkmeyer Will Continue in Charge of Niles Church

Climaxing three years of intensive work in the institution, Reverend Elmer G. Brinkmeyer, of Niles, was granted a Bachelor of Divinity degree at the sixty-sixth annual graduation exercises held at the School of Religion, Berkeley, last Thursday night. There were twenty-one members of the graduating class.

Reverend Brinkmeyer has been in charge of the Congregational church at Niles during the three years he has been studying at the school. He received a Master of Arts degree from the institution last year.

The Niles people who attended the graduation exercises were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. George Bonde, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ellsworth.

Continue at Niles

During his pastorate at Niles, Reverend Brinkmeyer has achieved a praisworthy record and gained many friends, a fact evidenced Sunday when it was decided at a special church meeting held after the morning service that he should continue his call at Niles indefinitely. When coming to Niles three years ago, it was understood Reverend Brinkmeyer should have charge of the Niles Congregational church while completing his work at the School of Religion. After Sunday's announcement, his stay in Niles is assured for a much longer period.

It also was decided at Sunday's meeting to call a conference of Congregational churches to ordain Reverend Brinkmeyer, Tuesday, May 31. Examinations will take place in the afternoon and a banquet will be served to church members and guests at 6:15 in the evening to be followed by ordaination ceremonies at 7:30 p. m.

Reverend and Mrs. Brinkmeyer came to Niles three years ago from Wichita, Kansas, where he graduated from the University of Wichita with a Bachelor of Arts degree. Reverend Brinkmeyer served two years in a church at that place after graduation from college, and on May 2 will celebrate his fifth anniversary of active religious work.

His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Azevedo, of Mission San Jose and a graduate of Washington Union high school. She is also well-known in the township.

FAMED PONY EXPRESS RIDER STOPS AT NILES ON TREK ACROSS COUNTRY

Colorful Figure of Old West Rides 4000 Miles on Pinto Pony

Niles was treated to a touch of the colorful and romantic days of the "wild and wooly" west Friday afternoon when "Broncho" Charley Miller, last of the pioneer pony express riders, came cantering into town on the last lap of a journey across the entire continent which began in Patchogue, Long Island, New York, last July.

Sitting straight and erect on his dark bay horse, Pole Star, which can boast of being the only horse to complete a trip across the United States, Miller little showed the weight of his eighty-two active years as he drew up before the Township Register office and enquired for a stable to put up his mount for the night, In fact, it was like looking at a picture out of a book glorying in the exploits of those vigorous heroes which played such a prominent part in the building of the west as one gazed at this colorful figure with long hair, hardly grey, falling over his shoulders under a cowboy hat and a closely cut moustache on a rugged and bronzed face lit up with kindly steely blue-grey eyes.

Military trousers, with modern riding boots and an army shirt was part of his attire, while a pair of black worn chaps were conspicious in front of his saddle. Calling to the imagination of those eventful days when he rode across the Indian infested plains, meeting hardships on every hand, on a mission now performed by railroad trains and airplane service, two saddlebags, marked "United States Pony Express" were hung in front of the pommel of the saddle, and contained several letters to California officials of note.

After being directed by the Register reporter to a stable owned by J. Fereria on Third street Niles, the pioneer express rider returned and related some of his many experiences on the transcontinental trip as well as of his early days.

Miller was born at Hat Creek, in Modoc county, California in 1850, the same year the state was admitted into the Union. He first became a pony express rider at the age of nine when his parents were killed in the Modoc county Indian massacre. He early gained fame as a carrier of mail between Sacramento and Carson City and holds the record for this route, traveling the distance of 240 miles in twenty-four hours, using fifteen changes of ponies on the trip.

The veteran plainsman became a cowpuncher during his early youth and followed this trade in many of the western state. He broke horses for Joseph Painter, of Hayward, on a ranch fifty miles east of Denver near Rogers, Colorado forty-seven years ago. Miller held a warm reunion with Painter in Hayward Saturday and carried to him a letter

TREAD LIGHTLY IS FUTURE AIM OF NILES JUDGE

FRIENDS of J. A. Silva, well-known Niles building man and stern dispenser of justice in the Niles court, probably have noted the crippled manner in which the judge moves about this week and have entertained speculations as to whether one of the victims of his decrees may have retaliated by resort to bodily injury.

But, no, such is not the case. The judge in his zealous inspection Saturday afternoon of his new building being constructed at the corner of First and "J" streets, Niles, forgot wherever there is building activity, pernicious evils such as upturned nails await the step of an unsuspecting victim. Thus he was painfully reminded of this fact and now walks with effort. Hereafter, when inspecting construction work, the judge avows he will wear a pair of shoes he has at his home which he resolutely defies any nail to pierce.

Tickets for the affair can be purchased at St. Mary's School, Mission San Jose, or may be purchased at the door on the day of the play.

Champion cowboys from all over the west, headed by the world's champion all-around cowboy, Johnny Schneider of Livermore, will compete for more than $25,000 in cash prizes and special awards.

From the moment the pioneer parade starts at 10:30 Saturday morning until the winners of twenty thrilling contests are decided Sunday afternoon, the program for the big celebration is filled with action.

Old stage coaches that crossed the plains in the fifties, covered wagons that preceded them on western trails and hundreds of relics of transportation of the fifties, will be in the procession. Mayors of 72 California cities will be guests at the show and children of grammar school age will be admitted free, if accompanied by an adult, Saturday afternoon.

Boys Compete Against All Oakland Area Scouts In Fast Time

Displaying record speed in responding to a call, the Niles Boy Scouts captured first place in a mobilization held Friday night in the Oakland high school building. The Niles boys received the call at six o'clock in the evening and by 7:10 were lined up 100 per cent strong at the high school awaiting inspection.

Hayward Troop No. 5 took second place with the time of one hour and fifteen minutes.

The mobilization was held for the purpose of determining how quickly all scout troops of the Oakland Area Council could be assembled in the case of emergency. Out of a total membership of 2980 scouts, 2756 responded to Friday night's call. The boys brought in approximately three tons of old clothes and non-perishable food stuffs to the gathering to be disposed of for the relief of the unemployed.

After all the scouts had assembled, an appropriate program of entertainment was provided. Ralph Fisher, president of the safety council, was the chief speaker of the evening and a short skit was presented by Al Courier and his Indian troop. Moving pictures of the various summer camps also were shown.

This mobolization marked the fourth time the Niles scouts have entered the annual competition. They have come near the top in time and efficiency before, but this is the first time they have captured highest honors.

NILES CHAMBER VOTES FOR PAINTING PARKING STRIPS IN "BOTTLENECK"

Better Garden Contest To Be Carried Out For School Children .....

Painting of parallel parking strips on both sides of the street in the "bottleneck" on First street, Niles, will be adopted as the most effective means to remedy the hazardous traffic condition existing at this point at the present time, it was decided at the regular meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce Monday noon.

A permit allowing the Niles civic body to perform this work was granted recently by the state highway department, although the state refused to bear the expense of the project. Bids for the strips will be submitted by the chamber committee headed by George Bonde, and the work carried out as soon as possible.

Many efforts to widen the highway in the "bottle neck"have been made by the Niles chamber, but the state department did not consider such a proposal as practical and recently suggested painting of parallel parking strips as the most feasible solution to the problem.

After considerable discussion among the members, the chamber decided to carry out the plans of the Better Garden contest formed earlier in the year. Although several members were of the opinion it was too late to hold the contest, it was pointed out many children from the Niles grammar school have already planted their gardens in anticipation of the competition and it would result in a great disappointment to them if it were not held,

The committee appointed at a previous meeting will have charge of the contest. It consists of W. B. Kirk, chairman; E. D. Bristow, A J Petsche, O W. Ebright and J. A Silva

A J. Petsche was appointed membership chairman to arrange for next week's gathering.

THE SCAR WILL REMAIN

ALL IS QUIET in Honolulu. Today the din will shift to San Francisco as the principals in the "honor slaying" will arrive in that port. The docks will be crowded with thousands of morbid-minded people craning their necks to get a glimpse of Mrs. Thalia Massie, the victim of as diabolic an outrage as has stirred red-blooded Americans in a generation. But those who have championed her cause will not be at the docks to see her; rather they would be inclined to save her additional embarrassment. The girl will never live the experience down. That is the pitiable thing—an indictment against the average set-up of humanity.

The writer, like millions of others, followed up the trial with marked interest. The spunk of the young woman in tearing up an intimate paper that concerned her private life and had no bearing on the case before the court, won our admiration. All through the trial she had shown fire and the stuff that makes the world doff its hat to a plucky and proud girl.

For that renegade, Kelly, the squaw man of the prosecution, we wish all the ill luck possible. If he ever comes back to the mainland, we hope decent people will treat him like the vile thing he is—a traitor to the white man, to womanhood; the apologist of the rapist and a pal of Hawaii's scum.

IT HAS COME TO THIS!

POLITICAL wise-crackers are asking if it was the Rolph endorsement of the Sharkey bill that was responsible for the "tremendous" vote that measure received in the late unpleasantness.

The question, put as it is in the spirit of sarcasm, is, to say the least, disconcerting to the flying play-boy governor of California. It may give him an inkling of his "pull" with the people. Reading the results in the morning paper of May 4, the governor took to his bed. After the flurry had blown over he got up, put a rose in the button-hole of his coat, went to the executive office, spick and span, ready to pose with the first pretty girl to show up.

Into such straits has fallen the government of California!

THE TRANSPARANCY IS EVIDENT.

A MONTH AGO we felt that the nursery road question was settled, and the subject all washed up. We had put away our files on this debated project, feeling that at last the matter could rest in peace. But such, apparently, is not the case.

Our supervisor, the Honorable Ralph Richmond, handed the little package to the district attorney's office. There is remains. Legal obstacles obstructing the beginning of road construction may be serious. At any rate, not a shovelful of dirt has yet been turned, not a surveyor's line drawn. The summer primaries may be over before anything is begun, and if nothing is done before then, it doesn't take a brilliant student of affairs to guess nothing will be done after.

If this is called clever politics, at least the writer has not been deceived.

OF course you would!

The success which other dairymen are having in safeguarding and even increasing their profits is neither chance nor luck. It is largely due to careful sterilizing of all dairy utensils with up-to-date equipment.

One of the most efficient sterilizers used today by successful dairymen is the Wellman Electric. Its most attractive feature is low operating cost. There is a style and size suitable for dairy farms with herds of any number up to 65 cows.

Operators of larger dairy farms are replacing antiquated steam generators with the WESIX Steam Boiler. This electrically operated boiler produces quick, low pressure steam and an abundance of hot water for use in large sterilizers.

Unlike equipment using other fuels, either one of these electrically operated sterilizing units may be placed in your milk room.

The use of either also enables the dairyman easily to comply with state and city ordinances governing bacteria count. In addition, the reduction in bacteria count enables him to command better prices for his higher quality products.

If you would like to reduce bacteria count and operating costs, and if you would like to increase your dairy profits as others are doing, install a WELLMAN or WESIX sterilizing unit. For complete details, get in touch with a Rural Power Representative through our nearest office.

STAGE IS SET FOR NILES SCHOOL DRAMA

At the conclusion of final practice sessions this week, the entire cast for the annual Niles grammar school minstrel show "Land O' Cotton," had mastered their roles to such perfection that an entertaining evening is a certainty for all those who witness the performance of the youngsters Friday night in the Veterans' Memorial building, Niles.

Approximately fifty pupils from all the grammar school grades will take part in the presentation, which is being staged in order to obtain funds for a school radio.

Among the highlights of the evening's performance will be clever bits of repartee and humorous remarks from the six black face end-men and entertaining songs by the chorus as well as amusing acts by the comedians. All the pupils have been working hard for the presentation under the direction of Miss Selma De Jong and Miss Celeste Bunker, and hope to be rewarded for their efforts by having a large audience on hand Friday night.

The costumes are in charge of Miss Gertrude Kellar.

The show is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock.

MORE ON FAMED PONY

from Governor Gifford Pinchot, of Pennsylvania.

Letters from Mayor James J. Walker, of New York City, to Mayor A. Rossi, of San Francisco, from several governors and other important men in the east to Governor James Rolph, Jr., from army officers scattered across the country to army officers in San Francisco also were included in Miller's mail pounches.

The veteran's fame as a bronco buster brought him to the attention of "Buffalo Bill" Cody, whose wild west show he was a part of for nine years. He took part in the show when it participated in Queen Victoria's Jubilee celebration in 1887.

Miller was intimately acquainted with all the famous gunmen of the old West such as "Wild Bill' Hickok and Bat Masterson.

Providing quarters and suitable feed for Pole Star proved the greatest hardship in the 4000-mile trek across the continent, said the express rider. The horse was shod seventeen times during the jaunt.

States crossed by Miller and his horse included New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Oaklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona.

Pole Star is five years old and came from Montana as a polo pony, from where he was shipped to Long Island to be broken by Miller. After the conclusion of the trip, he will be shipped back to New York by freight.

On the trip across the states, the pioneer and his mount received many demonstrations along the way. Hollywood especially paid high acclaim to the pair.

After spending the night in Niles, Miller set out early Saturday morning for Hayward. From there he went on to San Francisco to deliver letters, and then he will go to Sacramento to see the governor. Further plans are indefinite.

At the outbreak of the World War, Miller went to Canada, gave a fictitious age, got into the army and served until the armistice.

SWIMMING POOL DRIVE WILL CONTINUE UNTIL FIRST WEEK IN AUGUST

508 Subscribers Obtained In Township During Latest Drive

Although the goal of $7500 for the construction of the Washington township swimming pool had not been reached at the conclusion of the last report meeting held Thursday night in the Washington Union high school gymnasium, members of the original swimming pool committee will carry on the drive in an effort to obtain the entire amount by by August 1. On this date the money already subscribed will have to be returned if the entire amount for the construction of the project is not realized.

During the three weeks the intensive swimming pool drive was in progress throughout the township, approximately 1600 prospects were approached. From this group a total of 508 subscriptions were obtained, according to the total figures tabulated after the last report meeting Thursday night. The total amount of money subscribed or pledged up until that time, including the sum realized by the Centerville Lions committee before the just completed drive began, is approximately $3900.

Centerville led the list of township communities in the number of subscribers, while junior committees made up of high school students was second. The faculty committee was third, with Niles, fourth, Newark fifth, and Irvington, sixth, followed by Decoto. Alvarado was practically unrepresented in the list of subscribers.

From the number of indiviluals subscribing, the sponsors of the drive feel the campaign was a success, although they are disappointed with the amount of the average subscription, this amount falling below that expected.

It is the hope and the expectation of the Centerville Lions Club and others actively interested in putting the pool project over, to obtain the remaining amount between now and August 1.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Track and baseball emblems were awarded this week at the high school with ten cinder path artists receiving block "W's" and eleven ball tossers being rewarded for this season's efforts.

The following received track letters; Warren Martin, Billie Dick, Harry Nakagowara, Harry Sekigahama, Ted Logan, George Geib, Emery Weed, A. Williams, Frank Ferry, and John Munger.

Baseball letters went to: Ed. Rose, Hiroshi Sekigahama, Tom Ketashima, W. Foehr, Manuel Fontes, Stanley Roderick, Minoru Ikeda, John Wilson, and Harry Nakagowara.

The freshman boys' baseball nine pounded out a 14 to 1 victory over the sophomore tossers last Thursday in the first game of the interclass series. G. Maderios hurled for the frosh, while A. Maderios worked on the mound for the sophomores.

Monday afternoon the seniors walloped the juniors by a 11 to 0 count. The battle for school honors between the frosh and seniors took place this week.

A large number of students from the high school visited the fleet in the harbor at San Francisco, Saturday.

Election of student body officers for the coming year will be held at the high school today (Thursday).

Those who witnessed the fashion show held at the high school auditorium Friday night by members of the home making department class under the direction of Mrs. Josephine Morris were treated to a display of charming women's apparel worn in a fashion that would please the discriminating tastes of any feminine clothes buyer.

Displaying remarkable poise which contributed to the show's success, the girl models paraded before the audience in the latest in all types of women's clothing. The garments were all made by members of the class, who demonstrated by the show that they have no little ability in the seamstress art. The color combinations were especially appropriate and creditable.

Fitting music was provided for the affair by John Faria, violin, Bille Dick, saxaphone, and Margaret Silva, piano.

Miss Iva Liston, girls' physical education director, and no novice at the golfing game, is displaying her mastery in niblick wielding this week when she is entered in the final women's championship flight at the Hillview Country Club in San Jose. Miss Liston swings a mean golf stick and is expected to be one of the strongest possibilities to cop the crown. She was among the remaning contestants when the field was narrowed down to eight last week.

The date for holding the senior play, "Meet the Prince," has been changed from May 26 to June 1. The change has been made so the presentation will come as part of the other activities during Senior Week. The extension of time will assure the cast more practice and will undoubtedly result in making the drama a still greater success.

The Inkling published by the Penguin Club, a literary organization at the high school, made its appearance this week, and reflected marked writing ability on the part of the students. It is attractively made up and bound and contains poems and articles creditable enough to indicate there are future scribes in the school. Rutherford Kettman is the editor of the work, while Miss Grace Knoles, of the faculty, deserves much credit for the efforts she has made in acting as faculty director.

Over a hundred girls from the high school enjoyed the annual play day held at Hayward Saturday in which high school girls from San Leandro, Hayward, Washington, and Pleasanton high school took part.

All sorts of athletic games were played, and an enjoyable program held afterward toward which he Washington girls contributed three numbers, a tumbling act, a Japanese stunt, and readings by Frances Anderson and Katherine Evulich. Dancing and refreshments were enjoyed afterwards.

Crockett Wins From Pleasanton Don Team by Eleven to Nine

Three Senior Players Left Home To Test New Material

The Amador Dons journeyed to Crockett last Tuesday to play the Contra Costa league leaders and were beaten by a two run margin. The score was eleven to nine in favor of Crockett.

The Dons played one of their best games of the season. For the purpose of seeing what good prospects the Dons will have for next year's varsity, Coach Patterson left three of the senior players home. They were Andrade, Miller, and Nerton. Patterson was very well pleased with the showing the Dons made in this game.

In the first inning the Dons made three hits and scored two runs. Crockett scored two hits, one man walked, but George pitcher for the Dons, struck the next two batters out to prevent the Crockett boys from scoring.

When the Dons were up at the second inning, Amador made four runs on four hits and knocked the Crockett left handed pitcher out of the box.

In the third inning, nine Crockett batters faced Muggs George and got four hits and two walks from him. The good support of the rest of the Dons held Crockett to only three runs in this period.

Five errors made by Amador allowed four unearned runs to be scored. A home run in the seventh inning with two bases full practically gave Crockett the game. From then on until the end of the game Crocket held its slim lead.

Ken Hardy played second base for the Dons. This was the first time he has played on the varsity, and he gave a good account of himself.

Bob Silva led the Dons with three hits out of five times at bat, while Dutra, Ty Silva, and Marino, each got two hits out of five times at bat.

Both the Crockett and Amador pitchers walked six men and struck out five.

The Amador box score is as follows:

Marino, rf.	5	2	2	1

Don Baseball Players Given Rank by Coach

Grading Done by Original System of George Patterson

Amador baseball players were classified this week by Coach George Patterson, of Pleasanton, as a result of a close survey made of all the boys during all the games played this season.

The Dons were graded by a different system than that used by any other school. The system used was originated by Coach Patterson. The Dons were graded on their ability to score, or aid in scoring the runners. This ability determined the batting order of the Dons from one game to another. After each game these records were brought up to date and posted.

The player's value in playing has been reduced to a percentage basis so that a player who has played but few games may rank with one that has played in every game.

In this system the values of the players are based on times at bat, runs, hits, walks, strike outs, safe on opponents' errors, and sacrifices.

Frank Marino ranked first among the Dons. Bill Cole was fourth on the list, but led the team in getting the greatest number of hits. Fred Dutra ranked second and Bob Silva, fifth, although both were right behind Cole in the total number of hits.

The list of Amador ball sluggers in their order of rank is as follows:

Marino, Dutra, Ty Silva, Cole, Bob Silva, Andrade, Miller, Nerton, Tr[illegible]ingham, Safreno, Frank Peters, John Perry, Joseph Peters.

EIGHTY-NINE STUDENTS WILL GRADUATE FROM WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL

Exercises to Take Place Thursday Night, June 2

Eighty nine seniors at the Washington Union high school are looking forward with eager expectation, and perhaps with with some regret on the part of a great many of them, to Thursday night, June 2. For that evening will mark the close of four years' of high school life and leave them to face various careers in the world or to pass on to institutions of higher learning in their pursuit of an education.

This year's graduating class composed of forty-eight boys and forty-one girls will be the largest in the entire history of the school, and will exceed that of last year by twenty-six.

Selected this year to provide the seniors with the parting message before their high school days draw to a close, is Paul Pitman, former Big Brother on the KPO radio broadcast and now doing graduate work at the University of California. Pitman is known throughout the state for his ability to deliver inspiring addresses, and his presence as the chief speaker on the night of graduation is regarded as highly fortunate.

During the week of graduation the seniors will be engaged in their last round of activities at the school, which is expected to leave a pleasant memory in their minds in after years. On Wednesday night preceding the graduation excercises, the senior play, "Meet the Prince" will be presented in the high school auditorium under the direction of Miss Aubrey Nicely, high school dramatics coach. Thursday morning, the senior breakfast will be held, and that night the graduation exercises. The Senior ball, one of the most gala events of the year in the high school's social calendar, will take place in the high school gymnasium on Saturday night.

Billie Dick and Frances Anderson have been selected as the student speakers at the graduation exercises, which will be held in the high school gymnasium. The boys will be attired in dark suits and the girls in appropriate gowns.

Only those who receive invitation will witness the graduation exercises, and the presentation of gifts and flowers at the ceremonies has been absolutely forbidden. Those wishing to attend must obtain their invitation from some member of the graduating class or from the high school office.

MEAT dishes need not be expensive to be delicious. One of the most encouraging points about meat cookery is that a little ingenuity employed in their preparation produces pleasing variety of flavorful and highly palatable dishes. Success of the meat dish depends largely upon skill in seasoning, and the proficient woman keeps on hand sauces and seasonings necessary to make unusual dishes. Her pantry—or better still the shelf above her stove—contains Worcestershire and Beefsteak Sauce, Tomato Ketchup, Chili Sauce and Prepared Mustard. Even the most inexpensive cut of meat, when prepared in casserole dishes or braised with vegetables and seasoned with flavorful condiments, becomes a real delicacy. Tested recipes given below suggest many other excellent flavorful meat dishes:

Ham Roll with Tomato Juice: One large slice ham ½ inch thick; 1 cup bread crumbs or Rice Flakes; 1 tablespoon chopped onion; 1 teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce; 1 teaspoon Beefsteak Sauce; ¼ teaspoon pepper; 2 tablespoons melted butter; milk to moisten crumbs; 1 cup Tomato Juice. Soak ham in water if salty. Make dressing of crumbs, seasonings and milk to moisten. Cover slice of ham with dressing, roll up like jelly roll (rolling from broad side) and tie or fasten with toothpicks. Put in roasting pan and sear on all sides. Pour Tomato Juice over meat and bake at 400° F. until tender.

German Meat Steak: One lb. veal cut ¼ inch thick; 2 tablespoons Pure Vinegar; 1 thick slice onion; pepper; flour; 1 cup Tomato Juice; ½ cup water; 1 teaspoon salt; ½ teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce. Sprinkle veal with vinegar, add onion and allow to stand about ½ hour. Sprinkle with pepper, dredge with flour and brown in heavy skillet. Add Tomato Juice, water, salt and Worchestershire Sauce and simmer or bake until veal is tender and the sauce surrounding it heavy and rich. Serve with red cabbage and deep dish apple pie.

Hamburger Steak Baked Sandwich Style: Two pounds freshly ground beef; 1½ teaspoon salt; 2 tablespoons flour; Prepared Mustard; ¾ cup parboiled onion rings. Add salt and flour to meat, mix thoroughly. Divide into equal parts. Shape each into a layer ½ inch in thickness. Spread thickly with mustard and cover mustard with onion rings. Top with the second layer of meat. Bake in a hot oven from ½ to ¾ hour, basting if necessary with a few tablespoons warm water.

"MOTHER OF VINEGAR"
Prayer Time

The while she darns her children's socks,
She prays for little stumbling feet;
Each folded pair within its box
Fits faith's bright sandals, sure and fleet.

While washing out, with mother pains,
Small dusty suits and frocks and slips,
She prays that God may cleanse the stains
From little hearts and hands and lips.

And when she breaks the fragrant bread,
Or pours each portion in its cup,
For grace to keep their spirits fed,
Her mother-heart is lifted up.

O busy ones, whose souls grow faint,
Whose tasks seem longer then the day
It doesn't take a cloistered saint
To find a little time to pray!

Do You Know

That all spring long there has been a wee little forget-me-not growing right at the steps leading to the church entrance? This is highly suggestive to many who let the days go by while their more spiritual self must care for itself without the aid and fellowship of others. Providence placed it there as a gentle reminder in our way also. The church bell for instance as it peals out its notes each Sunday. Here is what it says, "Come-to-church."

That the pulpit at the Niles Congregational church is a free pulpit, and if anyone has a word to say against this particular church it had better be said from that place of utterance rather than from dark and hidden corners where only fool's tongues speak.

DECOTO CANNERY HEAD RETURNS FROM JOURNEY

After spending a year in Missouri, Oklahoma and Arkansas, R. L. Masters is now back at his former position as manager of the K. Hovden Company cannery at Decoto. The plant is planning on putting up a large pack of tomatoes this year.

Masters said economic conditions in the region where he has been visiting are probably worse than here, yet they are not too deplorable. He said there were not as many people depending on jobs back there.

Upon his return, Masters immediately re-subscribed to the Township Register, stating that he found it hard to get along without the news found in this great family journal.

An Idea That Ought to Start Something

The "Hoarding of Money" is ascribed by many economists as one of the causes of the present business depression. Two cities --- Buffalo and Rochester, N. Y.—decided to jar those idle dollars loose by advising the public, via ADVERTISING, to "Spend now what you will later."

The great success with which their campaigns met is attested to by the fact that other cities are planning to follow suit. Both merchants and the unemployed, all benefit by the idea. Hence, our reason for urging our merchants to advertise.

If every merchant in the township would start immediately advertising worth-while "buys" and keep it up consistently for six months the "depression" would be well on the way to oblivion by the time "winter comes."

Now, as always, the

stands ready to help, advise and encourage the merchants of this district in planning advertising campaigns that will bring results.

CHIMES OF NORMANDY OPENS AT PLEASANTON

"The Chimes of Normandy" was presented at the Amador Valley high school gym last Thursday and was repeated Monday evening for the purpose of giving all in Pleasanton a chance to see the elaborate performance.

Both performances were successfully staged. It was given by the adult evening choral class of the high school and was directed by Harry Tripp.

Pleasanton people who took the leading roles are: Elsie Moyer—Serpollette, an orphan; Doris Grana—Germaine, the lost Marchioness; Alice Layton—Gertrude; Wellela Moyer—Jeanne; Dorothy Heine—Manette; Olive Tripp—Suzanne; William Graham—Henri, the Marquis of Corneville; Fred Blacow—Jean Grenicheux, a fisherman; R. O. Moyer—Gaspard, a miser; Dr. Hal Cope—the Bailli; Mario Adami—Gobo, the Bailli's shadow; Tony Adami, Christophe, a cabin boy.

The chorus consisted of Mesdames Gertrude Noble, M. Pickard, G. Keating, Carry Bedsworth, A. Pelle, S. Tripp, and Mrs. J. George; the Misses Helen Rivolta, Enrica Adami, Leeta Haas, Pauline Enos, Billie Langdon, Joy Madsen, Josie Bottini, Betty Sobiela, Henrietta and Julia Woods, H. Cronin, D. Rasmussen, Verna Littlefield, and Mildred Sorensen; and Messrs. John Dolstra, E. D'Ombrain, Bud Perry, W. Mondo, Lincoln Madsen, K. Heine, Kenneth Hardy, Arnold Abrott, Robert Gibson, James Hughes, William Clark, and Tom Nerton.

The sailors were Stanley Anderson,, Kenneth Cake, Robert Cope, and Sam Glasey.

Miss Betty Sobiela was the dancer.

The story of the operetta is as follows:

Henri, Marquis of Corneville has been since childhood, owing to civil war, an exile, returns to his ancestral home on the occasion of the great annual fair which is being celebrated in the village that receives its name from his chateau. It is one of the old-fashioned Norman villages of the seventeenth century.

In the first act, the curtain rises on an assemblage of village gossips, discussing scandal and small talk. Serpollette is the topic of conversation. She comes just in time to turn the tables and change their taunts into rages. Gaspard, an old miser, wishes to marry his niece, Germaine, to the principal magistrate of the district, the Bailli. This does not suit Grenicheux, who pretends that he has saved her life from drowning. To escape from Gaspard's power, Germaine takes advantage of the privileges of the fair and becomes the servant of the Marquis. She is followed by Grenicheux and Serpollette.

The second act is with the supernatural visitors who have made the Castle of Corneville an object of dread. Henri tries to find out the real character of these ghostly appearances; and discovers that it is the work of the miser, who concealed his treasures in the chateau. The discovery drives Gaspard crazy, especially when the bells of the chateau ring for the first time since the flight of the old Marquis.

The third act is the grand fete given in honor of the return of Henri to his ancestral home. Serpolete comes as a Marchioness, as papers found in the chateau show that she is the lost heiress. The miser recovers his reason, and shows that Germaine is the true Marchioness.

San Pedro—J. C. Hickey awarded $9,400 contract for construction of Section No. 1 of local intercepting sewer which will run between Thirty-sixth and Shepherd streets.

DUBLIN MAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM ACCIDENT

Truck Turns Over Four Times in Plunge Down 250-Foot Bank

John Cronin, of Dublin, escaped without injuries from a peculiar mishap which occurred when Cronin was on his way to attend a rodeo given by Daniel Sullivan at his ranch on the Vallecitas road near Sunol recently.

Cronin was driving a truck which was pulling a trailer with a horse loaded in it. He was climbing a steep grade near the Sullivan ranch when the horse gave a sharp jerk, throwing the truck out of control. As a result the truck and trailer went down a steep 250-foot bank and turned over four times. Due to the steel frame around the seat of the truck, Cronin escaped without injury.

Cronin was accompanied by his two children, but left them out of the truck before starting up the grade. This fortunate coincidence probably saved their lives.

The remains of the truck were rescued by Andy Garin, P. H. Hoare, John Geary, Charles Graham and other Pleasanton cattlemen, who were present at the rodeo.

NILES POULTRY GROWER STRESSES CHICKEN HEREDITY

John Kimber Tells Hayward Audience of Investigation

Holding hereditary and environmental characteristics as among the most important factors in the scientific study of correct chicken breeding to secure continued high egg production and a low mortality rate, John E. Kimber, Niles poultryman, delivered the chief address before a gathering of members of the Bay View-Castro Valley farm center in Hayward Saturday. The talk was the results of the Niles man's investigation in chicken breeding.

Urging poultrymen to study a complete "family" production record rather than records of isolated good-producing hens as a means of determining the value of hens, Kimber told of a record he had established with fourteen hens, all sisters, with an average annual production per hen of 280 eggs without the death of a single fowl. He maintained careful breeding was responsible for such a record, and stressed the fact that average poultrymen have a mortality of around twenty-eight per cent with an average hen production of 144 eggs annually.

The Niles man said he destroyed one hen whose annual production was 330 eggs, because the egg size was under average. By proper study of hen family characteristics and correct breeding, Kimber stated that it also was possible to reduce the moulting season, from the average six weeks' period to a month or less.

A close study of all the hens produced for several generations from the same stocks will usually determine whether the family characteristics are good or bad, according to Kimber.

THE GEMEWUANCE GROUP

The Gemewuance group have been having a very good time during the past few weeks by making "scrap books." When the scrap books are completed they are to be given to the Babys Hospitals.

Some of the girls worked on raffia. Many interesting things are being made by the group.

The topic for the afternoon was, "Leadership."

THE TINEGA GROUP

Friday evening's meeting was under the leadership of Muriel Fournier and Evelyn Rose.

Interesting reports were given by a few of the girls.

The group went over reports and pictures of what the groups for the past five years have done in camp fire. The meeting was very friendly and interesting.
